Privacy Statement

(updated 20/02/2022)

Tyler International (TI) is a provider of international study tours and homestay services. TI acts on behalf of institutional, corporate and individual clients and counterparties around the world.

TI may collect, hold, use and disclose personal information about you to process your homestay application, administer and manage the services sought by and provided to you, communicate with you and deal with any complaints or enquiries.

We collect and record personal information through our interactions with you and your nominated adviser(s), including by telephone, email or online. We may also collect personal information from public sources and third parties including our service providers. Without this information, we may need to review the information provided further. We are required or authorised to collect your personal information under various laws.

Where you provide us with personal information about someone else, you must first ensure that you have obtained their consent to provide their personal information to us based on this Privacy Statement.

We may exchange your personal information with other companies directly related to TI as well as our service providers. We may also disclose personal information to regulatory authorities in connection with their lawful information requests or to meet our legal obligations in any relevant jurisdiction. The third parties with whom we exchange personal information may operate outside of Australia. Where this occurs, TI takes steps to protect your information against misuse or loss.

Under the Privacy Act, you may request access to your personal information that we hold. You can contact us to make such a request or for any other reason relating to the privacy of your personal information by telephoning us on 0415 227144 / 0430 081 262 or emailing reception@tylerinternational.com.au
